DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 17-24 and 28-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakano 5,165,990.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 17-24 and 28-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakano 5,165,990, in view of Haaf et al. 4,410,651, Haaf et al. 4,442,251, Abolins et al. 4,504,613, Lee, Jr. 5,008,314 or Okada et al. 5,412,024.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 2/12/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The cited references, individually or in combination, disclose applicants' composition and also teach molded articles made from said composition. Applicants' claimed pallet is just a molded article, without any structure. All properties, i.e. flame-retardance, suitability for commodity storage, load-bearing capacity, weather and moisture resistance, being recyclable, etc. are inherent in the composition. The claimed pallet has no structure, which would differentiate it from other large molded articles. There has to be no explicit statement in any of the cited references as far as passing certain tests or meeting certain requirements are concerned. Any composition, having the same ingredients, in the same ratios, should exhibit the same properties, when molded into a large article. The rejections are maintained.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 25-27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
